Our Gymnasium

During our years in school we have attended ball games, dances, practices, club meetings, classes, and pep sessions in the gym. As the school building represents our serious side, the gym represents part of our social life. Many times have we cheered the Hornets in victory or defeat in this building. This picture brings back many memories to the senior class.

*Familiar Scenes
at Angola High School*

Public Library

The Public Library across the street is a part of the familiar surroundings of A. H. S. It was often necessary to find supplementary reference material so our path led to its doors. Several of our student librarians did part time work here. We shall always have pleasant memories of this storehouse of knowledge so close at hand.

Winter Time at A. H. S.

Through these doors we have passed for twelve years. We have made friendships which will endure the rest of our lives. Here was a starting point which led to education, fellowship, friendship, and responsibility, behind which lies the key to success and happiness.

Hendry Park School

What one of us hasn't been in the crowds pictured? It is these scenes that will bring back some of our fondest memories.

Foreword

We, the seniors of A. H. S., should like to thank everyone at Angola High School who planted the seed of knowledge in our minds and those who helped it to grow throughout the years.

As you turn the pages of our Key, you will look upon the scenes that will be our everlasting memories in the years to come.

Appreciation

We, the Senior class of 1957, wish to express our appreciation to our sponsor, Mr. Barkdull, who has guided us through our last three years, and to Mike Erickson, who has been our class president during our four high school years.

Through the aid and guidance of these two, all successes of the seniors came about.

We sincerely thank you, Mr. Barkdull and Mike.

moulding character

building for the future . . .

Classes in Action

Mr. Holmes discusses the intricate workings of the United States government. The seniors listen.

No problem is too hard to solve in Algebra II with Mr. Hammel to help make things lively.

Future secretaries listen as Miss Ulerly explains complicated characters on the blackboard in Shorthand I.

Mr. Barkdull sees that everything is ready to start a special exercise in Typing I.

Classes in Action

Nouns, pronouns, verbs all pose problems for the students of English II, piloted by Mr. Seigel.

In Home Economics I Mrs. Trennepohl is describing a special way to make cup cakes that melt in one's mouth.

Propositions, theorms, and formulas are all a part of the study of this geometry class, taught by Mr. Myers.

"Carpe diem" is a slogan that governs activities in Latin I, under Miss Reed's direction.

Classes in Action

The freshmen study English composition — a l o n g with many other things — with Miss Shultz directing.

Mrs. Cline is reading directions for a project in the first section of English 8.

Seventh grade boys hear an explanation of machine operation by Mr. Graham.

It's practice time for the A. H. S. Band with Mr. Nichols directing.

Classes in Action.

Mrs. Clark supervises study in a seventh grade Science class.

A movie is to be shown in Chemistry class. Mr. Bernhardt gives the students a briefing beforehand.

Mr. Wearly gives directions before the Mechanical Drawing I students begin work.

Special construction work is under way in Mr. Porter's seventh grade Art class.

Driver Training

Driver Training is offered to all sophomores in our high school. The training consists of twelve weeks of behind the wheel instruction. This includes the fundamentals in handling an automobile in city traffic, out on the highway and on gravel roads. Questions sent out by the American Automobile Association must be studied and answered.

A project book must also be filled out. This deals with traffic laws, dangerous road situations, road signs, construction of the engine, mental attitudes, and many other things that confront a modern driver.

Starting this coming June, driver's training will be given during the summer months. Mr. Druck-amiller is the instructor.

Driver Training Class—Mr. Maxton gives "Druck" the keys.

The Center of All Activity—It is from here that the young drivers start.

TOP ROW: Seniors go to the polls; Linda Howe surprised; Bonnie Page, stepping it up; Is the pop good, David?
 SECOND ROW: Cafeteria—study hall style; Isn't the Christmas tree pretty, boys?
 THIRD ROW: Lunch time; What's cooking, Mr. Porter and Judy?

Our Superintendent

The graduating class of 1957 gives its sincere thanks to our superintendent, Howard Boomershine. Our welfare and the standing of our school has been of prime concern to him during the past decade.

Our Principal

Never too busy to listen to our troubles and offer advice, "Mac" has been a true friend to us in the past four years. Thank you so much for all you have done for us, Mr. McCutchan! We sincerely appreciate your interest.

Our Secretaries

We, the 1957 seniors, wish to take this opportunity to express our sincerest thanks and deepest gratitude to our secretaries, Edith Kunkel and Phyllis Jennings, for all their help throughout our high school days.

Carlton Chase

Board Of Education

Much of the success for the smooth operation of the Angola schools should be credited to the Board of Education. At their meetings the problems regarding the financial program, the planning of a school curriculum to meet state requirements, the selection of teachers, and the legislation of school rules are considered.

The members of the board are: President, Carlton Chase; secretary, Harold Stevens; treasurer, Heyman Wisner; R. L. Nedele, and Robert Berkes.

We, the graduating class of 1957, wish to extend to them our most sincere thanks for making our high school years so enjoyable.

Grade Principal

To Mr. Rathburn, the grade school principal, we should like to show our appreciation for the splendid work he has done keeping things running smoothly both at Hendry Park and at the High School Building.

Mr. Rathburn

Faculty

Mr. Holmes and Mr. Hammel are talking about last night's basketball practice while Mr. Druck-amiller listens in.

Something funny must have happened if we judge by the smiles of Miss Shultz and Miss Reed.

Miss Ulery and Mr. Barkdull are both interested in what happens in the commercial department.

Faculty

Mr. Bernhardt explains to Phil how the mechanism of the eye operates.

Mr. Porter and Mrs. Kinzie talk over the activities of the art department for the day.

A drawing should be done correctly with both Mr. Wearly and Mr. Graham looking on.

Faculty

Mr. Shepherd is showing Mr. Myers how to locate some cards for film strips for geometry class.

Important matters in the English department are being considered by Mr. Seigel and Mrs. LaVine.

Miss Siebold has just had a very good choir practice which she is telling Mr. Nichols about. His band has probably done very well too.

Faculty.

Mrs. Clark is preparing equipment for an experiment in a junior high science class.

The underlying principles of food preparation have been up for discussion in Home Economics I and now Mrs. Trennepohl lays down the chalk.

Miss Shantz is "passing the time of day" in Miss Frank's sixth grade room before going to a seventh grade girls' gym class.

Faculty

Things look rosy in the junior high department if we judge by the expressions of Mrs. Cline, Mr. Nesbitt and Mrs. Kile.

Mr. Ryan has found a map that could be used in fifth or sixth grade; he's showing it to Miss Hephner and Miss Harmon. Notice the apple!

Mrs. Fuller and Mr. Sapp are considering fifth grade projects.

Faculty

Mrs. Schrider is explaining "pumpkin faces" for the benefit of Mrs. Hart and Miss Lemley.

Miss Stevens, Mrs. Reichardt and Mrs. Gernant are talking over fourth grade reading material.

Mrs. MacFadyen has a pleasant expression as she tells Mrs. Hedglin about the drawings on the first grade bulletin board.

Faculty

Mrs. Roe and Mrs. Garn are talking over projects for the day. The little clown on the table listens. They are at Hendry Park.

A unique paper mache mask is the subject of Miss Hardy's and Miss Collins' conversation. The corn shock suggests Halloween too.

Mrs. Boyer, Miss Myers and Miss Teegardin are all interested in a book—possibly on "Why Johnny Can Read." They all teach first grade at Hendry Park.

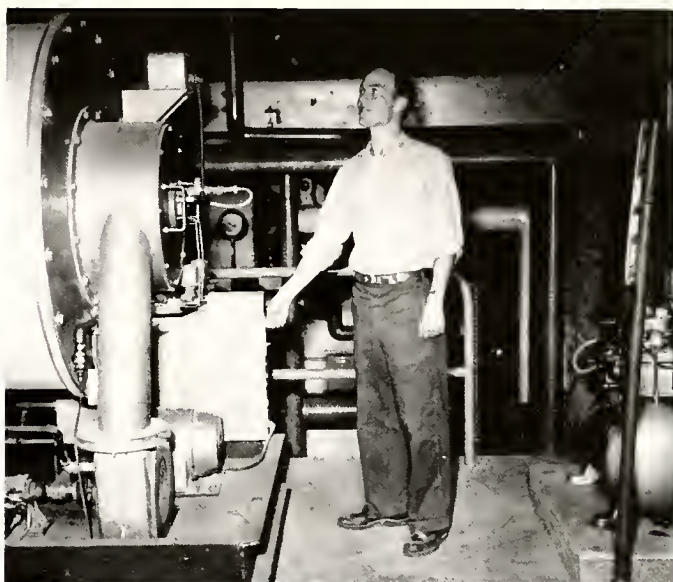

Custodians

Very important people in the school buildings are the maintenance men. One thousand and one tasks they are asked to do. They check the heat, sweep the floors, build stage sets—in fact they do everything!

Here we see Bill Parker in the furnace room at Hendry Park.

Jess Reynolds prepares to mop the floor in the high school building.

Lester Shelton and Harry Sowle are sweeping the floor in the gym.

Bus Drivers

Our faithful bus drivers are always on the job, no matter what the condition of the weather or the roads. Theirs is a job of great responsibility and seldom do they receive all the credit that is their due. Each one of them is a personal friend of every pupil who rides on his bus.

The drivers this year were Norris Lehman, Blaine Demorest, Earl Butz, Clifton Nilson, Fordyce Johnson, Kenneth German and Loren Dixon.

The Hornet

The "Hornet" is the school paper put out monthly by the journalism class of A. H. S. It contains news, editorials, exchanges, gossip, jokes, sports and other interesting material.

It was started in 1918, when it was called the "Key" as well as the yearbook.

In 1949 the "Hornet" staff was admitted to membership in the Quill and Scroll, the International Honor Society for High School Journalists. The members of the staff also belong to the National Scholastic Press Association.

Putting the Hornet Together

Y-Teens

"To find and give the best is our purpose true, earnest, honest, and our slogan—to face life squarely too." This Y-Teen slogan can be heard every other Monday when the sixty-five members of Y-Teens meet. With the banging of the president's gavel the business meeting proceeds and plans are discussed for the big Christmas Prom, this year called "Crystal Fantasy," The Y-Teens, a junior branch of the Y.W.C.A., Pa-Ma-Me Banquet, besides many other activities. The Y-Teens, a junior branch of the Y. W. C. A. stands for a Christian way of life and does much to influence the student body. Many inspiring meetings have been held.

The officers were: President, Sharon Crain; vice president and membership chairman, Anne Burns; secretary, Judy Fair; treasurer, Beth Selman; program chairman, Janice Laird; social chairman, Nancy Wood; service chairman, Eileen Schaeffer; finance chairman, Karen Reese; song leader, Jean Wicoff; pianist, Lucinda Newnam; chaplain, Rosalyn Burton.

The advisers were: Miss Frank, Mrs. Wood, Miss Shultz, Mrs. Jarrard, Mrs. Boomershine, Miss Reed, Mrs. Crain, Mrs. Skove, Mrs. Stevens, and Miss Myers.

The Angola Hi-Y Club, organized in 1922 by former Superintendent John L. Estrich, was the first in the state of Indiana. The club is a member of both the state and national organizations.

The purpose of the club is—"To create, maintain, and extend through the home, school and community the high standards of Christian character." The club members have carried out their purpose this year by sending officers to both fall and spring district Hi-Y conventions, holding a joint father-son, mother-daughter banquet with the Y-Teens, sponsoring an auditorium program at Easter and also sponsoring, jointly with the Y-Teens, the Christmas Prom, "Crystal Fantasy."

The club met every other week. The programs included outside speakers, films, and discussions of general interest to the members.

The officers were: President, Jim Maxwell; vice-president, Jim Wyatt; secretary, Bill Sheets; treasurer, Ben Bryan; chaplain, John Fiandt; service chairman, Tony Romero; and program chairman, John Shaw.

The sponsor was Mr. Wearnly.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association is an active group in our school this year. This organization is for all girls in high school interested in athletic activity.

The purpose is to increase the girls' interest in various sports and to develop friendship, better sportsmanship, and co-operation.

Every Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:45 the girls participate in sports such as basketball, volley ball, and soft ball.

This year's officers are: President, Judy Fair; vice-president, Connie Crain; secretary, Connie Gary; and treasurer, Phyllis Harter. The faculty sponsor is Miss Joan Shantz, the physical education instructor.

Safety Patrol

White belts, flashing yellow lights, and red and white stop signs are evidence that the members of the safety patrol for the Angola schools are on the job. This is the tenth year the patrol has been functioning. It is in this group that the parents of the community place their faith that their children will get to and from school safely.

With Captains Jim Wyatt, Junior German, and Lieutenant Ray Brown assigning each member to the post he or she is best fitted for, we can expect the patrol to function smoothly regardless of the weather or anything else that might interfere.

D. R. Graham is the patrol supervisor this year.

Many Things Are Considered By This Group

Future Teachers Of America

The John Estrich Future Teachers of America Club was organized for students who have an interest in teaching and think they would like to enter the teaching profession. In the club they are told what qualifications they must have to become teachers. Then by the means of student teaching, movies, and talks given by teachers and other professional workers the students decide whether or not they have the qualifications to become teachers.

The activities during the past year consisted of meetings on alternate Wednesdays, a faculty tea, sock hops, conferences, an auditorium program, and student teaching.

The officers for the year are: President, Bill Wright; vice-president, Anne Burns; and secretary-treasurer, Carolyn Berning. The club's faculty adviser is Mrs. Gladys Kile.

A Council Meeting Is About To Start

Student Council

The Student Council was organized in 1932 to promote co-operation between students and faculty, provide opportunities for student self direction, foster all worthy school activities, and create and maintain high standards for citizenship.

This organization has sponsored and participated in many activities throughout the year such as: sponsoring a sock hop; selling basketball tickets; sponsoring the selection of cheerleaders; striving to arouse school spirit; sponsoring the May Prom; sponsoring an auditorium program; and working on the school problems in general.

The Council consists of four members, two boys and two girls, from each high school class. This year the members of the Council were: Seniors—Nancy Wood, Margaret Field, Jon Holtzman, and Tom Priest; juniors—Mary Schrider, Anne Burns, Gary Griffith, and Roger Wilson; sophomores—Janie Flegal, Sandie Shank, Gordie Van Marter, and Jerry Randolph; freshmen—Pam Beatty, Dianne Short, Mike Stohler and Jerry Hoffman. The officers are: President, Nancy Wood; vice-president, Gary Griffith; secretary-treasurer, Margaret Field; and reporter, Jon Holtzman.

Mr. Bernhardt is the faculty adviser.

An Important Meeting Is In Progress

National Honor Society

One of the special honors given to the seniors of Angola High School is to be selected for membership in the National Honor Society.

Fifteen per cent of the class are eligible. They are selected from the upper third of the class, ranked according to scholastic achievement, and chosen by the faculty on the basis of citizenship, service to the school, and character.

Those who received the honor this year are: LaMar Brown, Paul DeRosa, Janet Hantz, Tom Hoffman, Jon Holtzman, Lucinda Newnam, Richard Servis, John Shaw and Nancy Wood.

The officers for the 1957 group are: President, Tom Hoffman; vice-president, Paul DeRosa; secretary, Nancy Wood. Mr. McCutchan is the treasurer.

The local chapter of the National Honor Society was established in 1935 and the membership is now 261.

A scholastic fund was set up in 1938. Each member contributes one dollar to the fund for the first five years he is a member. The money is used in the form of a loan to help send a graduate of Angola High School to college.

Mr. Shepherd

Librarians

Activity every hour of the day marks the life of the student librarians. Whenever any student wants a book or magazine, the librarians are always willing to help him find it.

When the librarians are not locating material for other students, they are taking care of the books and keeping the files in order.

We greatly appreciate their service throughout the year.

Projectionists

Movies, film strips, the record player and the tape recorder are all a part of the day's work of the film projector operators. The audio-visual program of the school is expanding each year and is a very important part of regular class work.

The projectionists are always eager to do their work and the four film projectors are very frequently in use. Audio-visual aids make classwork fun.

Consuls Address the Citizens

Junior Classical League

The Junior Classical League is a national organization composed of local classical clubs in junior and senior high schools throughout the United States and its territories.

The purpose of the J. C. L. is to encourage among the young people an interest in and appreciation of the civilizations of ancient Greece and Rome and to give them some understanding of the debt of our own culture to that of classical antiquity.

The officers of the local club are: Consuls, John Shaw and John Fiandt; Scriba, Norma Law; and Consultor, Miss Reed.

John Shaw has the distinction of having attended all the state conferences during his four years of high school. When a sophomore he served as chairman of one of the state committees. John Fiandt and Norma Law have also attended state meetings, as well as several other members of the club.

Romans For An Evening

Students of Latin II were Romans for an evening at a Roman Banquet held last spring in the home economics room.

These toga clad figures represented a famous Roman, Greek or a god or goddess. Achilles, Pheidippides, Cleopatra, Athena, Ceres, Pluto, Medusa, Jason, Diana, Mark Antony and Ajax were just a few of the characters portrayed.

The banquet was elaborate. The auspices were taken before the feast. Only such delicacies that were dear to the heart of a Roman were served. Finger bowls added a Roman touch.

A program was presented after the banquet and then Greek and Roman games provided the entertainment.

Thespian Society

The Angola Chapter of the National Thespian Society was organized in Angola High School in 1952. The organization is composed of students who have earned a sufficient number of points, through service to the dramatics department, to enter the society.

The Thespians produced three one-act plays under the supervision of three student directors on November 20. These plays were "Golden Slippers," directed by Jean Crain; "Curse You, Jack Dalton," directed by Jon Holtzman; and "Love Errant," directed by Lucy Newnam.

The officers of the club are: President, Jon Holtzman; vice-president, Paul De-Rosa; secretary, Lucy Newnam; treasurer, Jean Crain. The faculty sponsor is Robert Seigel.

"Time Out For Ginger"

"Time Out For Ginger," a comedy in three acts, was presented by the senior class on Friday and Saturday nights, October 15 and 16.

The plot dealt with the antics of Ginger, a girl who would rather play football than be a lady, and her worried family. Father was on Ginger's side all the way because she was his "son." Action came to a head when Ginger's two older sisters, Joan and Jeannie, joined a boycott against the team because of Ginger's participation. Mother with her level head, helped the situation to smooth out perfectly.

The cast included: Paul DeRosa as Howard Carol; Lucy Newnam, Mrs. Carol; Jean Crain, Ginger; Judy Braman, Lizzy, the maid; Mag Field, Jeannie; Sharon Crain, Joan; Jim Hildebrand, Eddie; Jim Maxwell, Tommy; Jon Holtzman, Edward; Tom Hoffman, Mr. Wilson; and John Shaw, a messenger boy.

The play was under the direction of Mr. Seigel, with student director, John Shaw.

"Come Out Of The Closet"

"Come Out of the Closet," a mystery comedy in three acts, was presented by the junior class of Angola High School on Thursday and Friday evenings, March 14 and 15.

All action took place in a rundown apartment in New York City, which three inexperienced girls had rented. Mysterious figures appeared from the closet, which had no key. Close neighbors were eccentric and their landlady was greedy. Events turned out for the best as the mystery was solved; the police arrived in time; and the girls reached a friendly argument with their landlady.

Featured in the cast were: Ann Slanina, Mrs. Malone; Norma Law, Hilda Hawkins; Beth Selman, Irene Gleason; Anne Burns, Jenny Potts; Karen Day, Ammonia Mullins; Nancy Randolph, Abbie Phillips; Bill Wright, Guthrie Rosewater; Dick Baade, Mr. Cutter; Bob Eff, Hercules Jones; Dave MacFadyen, George Hanson; and John Fiandt, Sweeney.

Mr. Seigel was the director and Carol Skove, the business manager.

Three One-Act Plays

The Thespian Society presented three one-act plays in the auditorium on November 20.

"Curse You Jack Dalton" was an old-fashioned melodrama in which the hero saves the heroine from the villain's clutches. The cast included: Nancy Randolph, Mrs. Dalton; Sharon Herendeen, Anna Alvarado; Anne Burns, Bertha Blair; Jim Maxwell, Egbert Van Horn; Jerry Randolph, Jack Dalton; Mary Schrider, Eloise Dalton; and Tom Hoffman, Richard Blair.

"Love Errant," a comedy based on high school life, featured Susan Rathburn as Ann; Pete Havholm, Jim Howard; James Hildebrand, Guy Thomas; and Elizabeth Owens, Eve Terrance.

"Golden Slippers" was straight drama. The cast included: Elaine Artman, Ann Todd; Paul DeRosa, Joe Malloy; June Priest, Miss Morgan; and Lynda Gentry, Maggie.

The student directors were Jean Crain, Jon Holtzman, and Lucy Newnam. The Thespian sponsor is Mr. Seigel.

Band

The band is a very active organization around Angola High School. It is under the direction of Elwood Nichols.

Last year, 1956, the band won a superior rating at the district contest which was held at Angola. The following week it won an excellent rating at the state contest, which was held at Kendallville.

This year, 1957, the group won an excellent rating in the district contest held at Concord Township school.

The outstanding event of this year's marching band was its participation in the Band Marching contest held at North Side High School in Fort Wayne. The band was led by Phil Wilson, drum major. The twirlers were Janis Brand, Sandra Shank, Bonnie Page, Norma Law, and Sharon Babcock.

The band played in the contest this year. The selections were: Crosley March by Henry Fillmore, "Symphony in E Flat" by Saint-Saens, and Ballet Parisien by Offenbach-Isaac.

The band played at all the home basketball games throughout the year and presented a special Christmas program at the Salem game.

Orchestra

Under the direction of Mr. Nichols the orchestra, now consisting of 35 members, has aided in various school activities in the Angola High School auditorium. The Senior Class Play, the Junior Class Play, and the Dramatics Club Three One-Act Plays were made more entertaining by the music of the orchestra.

The orchestra also presented a concert on March 26, featuring the Grieg Concerto for Piano and Orchestra with Lucinda Newnam as piano soloist. The last portion of the concert was devoted to Ballet, Gypsy Dances, Slavonic Dances, and The Waltz of the Flowers from the Nutcracker's Suite.

A superior rating was won last spring, 1956, by the orchestra in the District Contest held at Angola. The group won an excellent in the State Contest at Kendallville.

The orchestra won a superior rating in the District Contest at the Concord Township school this spring, 1957, and an excellent rating at the State Contest at Knox.

Choir

A very important group in the music department is the High School Choir, under the direction of Miss Nancy Siebold.

The Angola choir sang in the district choir contest last spring, 1956, and they received a first. After the district contest was the state contest in which the choir received three perfect scores on their songs and a perfect score on sight reading.

Superior ratings were won by the Choir this year, 1957, in the district contest at Concord Township school and in the state contest held at Knox.

Choir

The members of this group have been very busy this year also. They gave a wonderful concert at Christmas time which included a musical story, " 'Twas the Night before Christmas," along with a variety of other Christmas songs. Miss Jeanette Bourne, who was a student teacher here, directed two of the songs.

A spring concert featuring American numbers was presented. It included music from "The King and I," cowboy songs and many other enjoyable selections.

Senior Ensemble

MIDDLE ROW: Judy Brown, John Williamson.

Vocal Ensembles

A number of vocal groups have been formed this year and have appeared on various programs at the school and at entertainments for other organizations.

Besides the senior ensemble and senior quartet, these include:

Junior trio—June Priest, Nancy Randolph, Rosalyn Burton.

Sophomore ensemble—Altos, Karen Brokaw, Susan Rathburn, Janice Converse; second sopranos, Suzy Steenerson, Lynda Gentry, Sharon Brokaw, first sopranos, Mary Jo Willis, Barbara Strite, Connie Gary.

Freshman trio—Sue Ulmer, Martha Wilder, Dianne Short.

Gary Forbes has contributed much to the music department by singing for different groups and clubs. He has never said no to a request to sing.

Instrumental Ensembles

A number of ensembles made appearances on school programs and at various club meetings.

Three groups represented the school at the Music Educators' Association contests at Indianapolis.

These were: The string quartet—Sharon Brokaw, violin; Karen Brokaw, cello; Lynda Gentry, violin; and Mary Jo Willis, viola.

The woodwind trio—Eileen Schaeffer, oboe; Sandra Shank, clarinet; and Bonnie Page, flute.

Brass sextet—Paul DeRosa, trombone; Mike Erickson, baritone; Allen Kunkel, tuba; Gary Forbes, French horn; John Shaw, cornet; John Williamson, cornet.

ANGOLA SCHOOL SONG

All for thee, Angola High School;
We will ever do our best;
When the challenge comes to serve
thee,
We will never fail the test.

May we bring thee naught but glory,
As we loud our voices raise;
Through the years, Angola High School.
We will sing thy praise.

MUSIC PARENTS' ORGANIZATION

The band parents have been a great help to the music department this year. The officers of this organization are: Presiednt, Clyde McLeland; secretary, Mrs. Kenneth Steele; and treasurer, Wendell Jacob.

They raised money from the annual pancake supper and the exhibit night supper. They have given money to the department for a strobo-tuner and an auido-hailer. They also paid for the transportation to district and state contest.

MARCHING BAND

The Angola High School marching band took part in the parade at South Bend at the opening of the toll road last fall. Many schools were represented in this event.

The band also participated in the marching contest in Fort Wayne and received a very good rating.

TOP ROW: Clarinet trio—Carolyn Eerning, Janie Flegal, Janis Brand; Miss Siebold and Janis Brand.
SECOND ROW: Woodwind quintet—Sylvia Butler, Dianne Short, Sue Ulmer, Mary Jo Willis, Elaine Artman; Janice Converse.

Season In Review

The Hornets started the season with a bang by defeating Waterloo 58-56 and LaGrange 69-60. Then they lost a tough game to Ligonier. The next week the boys played a fine game, but could not defeat Concordia and lost by a 65-59 score. Butler then invaded Angola and found the Hornets too tough for them. Angola won by 70-57.

The team traveled to South Whitley and lost to a good Bulldog team by a 52-63 score. The Hornets went back home to meet the Howe Military team. Angola came out on the top of a 71-69 score. The next night they played Riverdale at Auburn and won easily 66-43. Salem proved another easy opponent as the Hornets downed them 70-29. About the only good thing that Angola got out of the holiday tourney was money for the athletic department. They lost their first game to an improved Butler five by 70-56. In the consolation game the team was again disappointed by their play as they lost to Fremont by a 82-71 score.

The next week the Hornets bowed to Garrett 49-45. When they met Auburn's Red Devils here they played one of their finest games, but lost by two points in an overtime contest. The score was 54-52. The next week saw Angola win a very close contest from the Berne Bears by the score of 63-62. New Haven invaded Angola and went away with an easy victory, 79-66. The next night Angola met their big rivals, Fremont, and lost the game in the final seconds by a 60-59 score. A hot shooting Decatur team beat the Hornets at Decatur by 93-65. Elmhurst followed by downing the Hornets 70-58 in their new gym. Kendallville bested the Hornets 56-49. Lastly they were edged by Avilla 59-57 in the Fort Wayne Coliseum.

In the Sectional Angola downed Salem Center 75-46 and then trounced Metz 64-36. Garrett bested the Hornets 49-41 in a very good game.

Gary Forbes and Mike Erickson were named on the All-Sectional Tourney team.

CHEERLEADERS

What would we do without our four excellent cheerleaders? Margaret Field, Bonnie Gary, Bonnie Page, and Sandy Shank have done a wonderful job keeping up school spirit throughout the basketball season.

COACHES

John Hammel and Basil Holmes are our coach and assistant coach, whose excellent jobs of training players brought out the best in every boy and made the Hornets and the Bees always tough teams in competition.

Carroll Nesbitt is the valuable coach who brought the seventh and eighth grade teams through a good season.

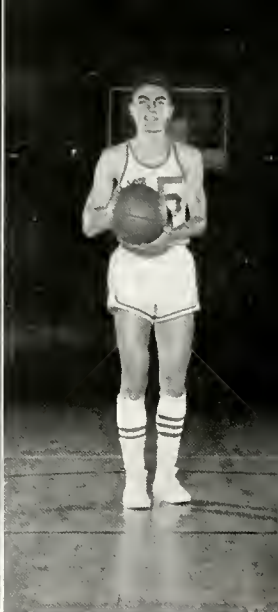

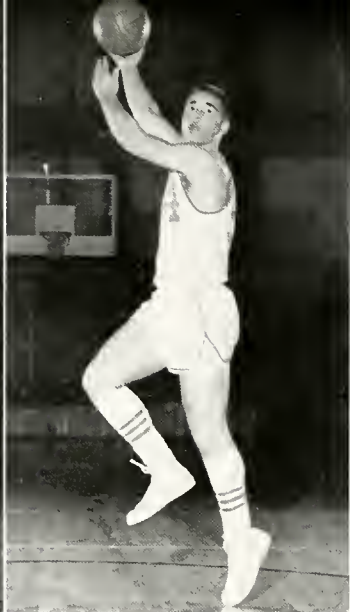

A. B. Barkdull is responsible for the handling of the whole athletic program.

MANAGERS

We're proud of our student managers, Dave MacFadyen and Bruce Boardman. They looked after all the little things that add much to a successful season.

Track Season In Review

Angola was victorious in their first meet of the season last spring, 1956. They romped over a weak Hamilton team to the tune of 80-29. The next meet was a three way one with Avilla and Kendallville. Avilla took first place with Angola a close second; Kendallville finished out of the running. Butler was Angola's next victim as the powerful Purple and Gold harriers handed them a 63-46 "licking." The Red Devils of Auburn could not restrain the mighty Hornets as they romped to a 62²/₃-48¹/₃ victory. Angola's next opponents, Hamilton and Waterloo, also felt the Hornets' sting. Another victory was chalked up as the Angola harriers rolled over both Howe Military and Wolf Lake. The next meet held much stiffer competition. Angola was able to take second place in a three way meet with Garrett and Central Catholic of Fort Wayne. Garrett with a strong squad took top honors.

In the annual New Haven Relays the Angola squad placed fourth out of a field of over twenty. Several records fell as the day's events progressed. Dick Finch broke the pole vault record with a jump of 11'4"; Dave Ralston shattered the shot put mark with a heave of 44'2".

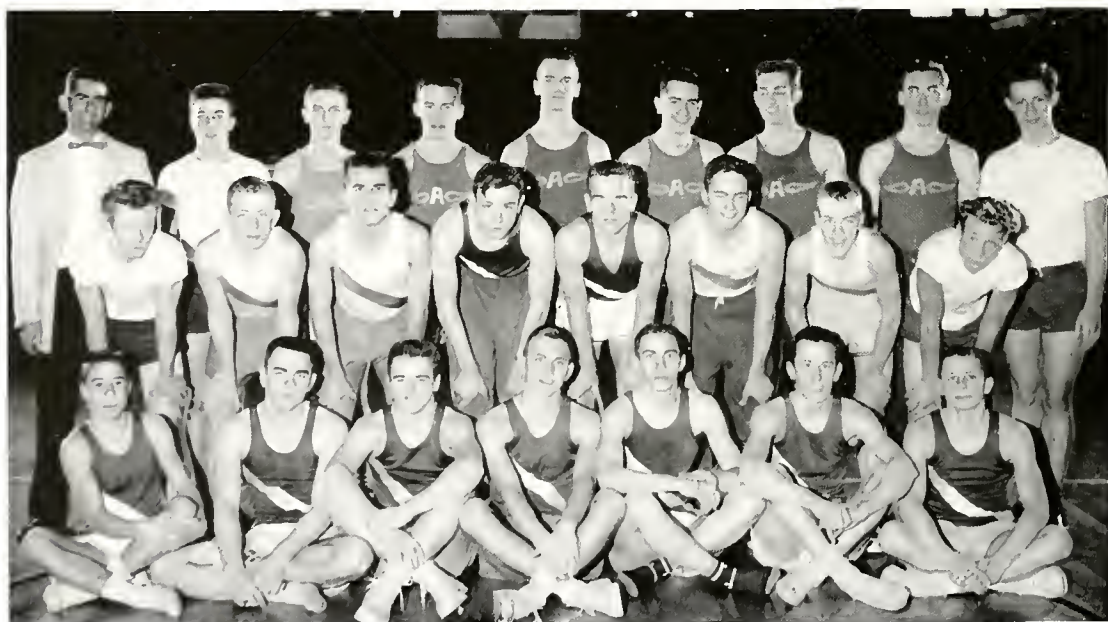

Last year was the first running of the Garrett Invitational, an event in which outstanding boys from Steuben, DeKalb, and Allen counties took part. The boys from Angola turned in many fine performances.

The climax of the season was the Sectional track meet held at Elkhart. Despite the weather conditions and a water-logged track many fine performances were given. As a team Angola placed second, the winner being Elkhart; but individually our team was strong. The boys captured first places in the 100 yd. dash, the pole vault, the high jump, and the shot put.

Mike Erickson, Dick Finch, Gary Forbes, Gary Griffith, Phil Rorick, and Dave Ralston qualified for the Regional meet. Dick Finch was the only boy who qualified for the State.

The track team was coached last spring by Art VanMatre.

The team is now being coached by Carroll Nesbitt, who formerly was the coach of the Junior High track team.

Cross Country

This year the cross-country team was sparked by the returning lettermen: Maurice Barlett, Ron Wuest, Tom Priest, Phil Rorick, Dick Steinke and Tom Hoffman, all of whom were seniors, and Keith Beechy, a junior letterman. New faces on the squad this year were John Williamson, Bruce Boardman, Paul DeRosa and Alan Alaura.

The Hornets got off to a slow start with losses to Camden, Butler, Howe Military and Coldwater. The Hornets then won their first victory against Ashley. They then traveled to Fort Wayne and won second place in a three-way meet with Concordia and Arcola. The Hornets began to show improvement and the team then ran their best meet of the year against South Side of Fort Wayne and were defeated by only a narrow margin. The Hornets ended their season by participating in the sectional meet at Fort Wayne on October 23, 1956.

The Hornet cross country coach this year was Carroll Nesbitt.

Baseball

The Hornets had a mediocre baseball season this year, winning three and losing three. The team got off to a fast start by rolling over the Wildcats of Waterloo by the score of 15-5. The Hornets then journeyed to Ashley where they were handed their first defeat in two years to the tune of 8-7. The team climbed back into the winning column by white washing the Butler squad 21-4 on the Angola Legion diamond. Our nine chalked up another victory as they shut-out the Riverdale Comets 9-0.

The last two games of the season were filled with gloom. The Ashley Aces again succeeded in licking the Hornets 11-8, and in the last game Butler came out on top with 4-2 victory.

Coach Holmes, Tony Holtzman, Bruce Boardman, Doug Sharrow, Paul DeRosa, Gordon Van Marter, Dave MacFadyen, Mr. Hammel.

Golf

The golf team completes its third year this year. For two years Angola lost all their games, but last spring, 1956, they finally broke into the winner's circle by taking their last three matches. The golf team ended the season with a record of three wins and three losses.

The golf team played Garrett and Kendallville twice and Concordia and Harlan once.

The team journeyed to Fort Wayne to participate in the sectional held at Brookwood Municipal Golf course on May 15. Although they didn't qualify for the state they made a good showing by finishing fourteenth out of twenty-four teams.

Team members were John Weiss, Ronnie Steenerson, Paul DeRosa, Doug Sharrow, Dave MacFadyen and Gordon VanMarter. John Hammel was the coach.

Class Will

We, the class of 1957 of Angola High School situated in the city of Angola, in the county of Steuben, in the state of Indiana, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament.

To Mr. BARKDULL, our sponsor, we leave our sincere thanks and appreciation for his wonderful guidance.

To Mr. McCUTCHAN, our principal, we leave our best wishes for success in guiding the future classes through the trials and tribulations of high school as he did us.

To Mr. BOOMERSHINE, our superintendent, we leave all good thoughts that we have received from assembly speakers.

To THE REST OF THE FACULTY, we leave our best regards and the wish that they may instruct many other classes in science, Latin, English, and other subjects. We also leave the memory of the class of '57 to do with as they may see fit.

To THE JUNIORS, we leave our ability to uphold the Senior name, in the hope that they will do as well as we have in our last year.

To THE SOPHOMORES, we leave our ability to make money on the money-making projects.

To THE FRESHMEN, we leave our ability to get along with the faculty and to have as much fun as we have had in the four years of high school.

In addition to those bequests we wish to dispose of some more of our personal items as follows:

I, MAURICE BARLETT, do hereby bequeath my locker, number 554, to Dick Baade and Keith Beechy in the hope that they keep it clean.

I, JUDY BRAMAN, do hereby will and bequeath my Hornet covers to any unsuspecting junior.

I, JUDY BROWN, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass every class in high school to any future freshman who might need it.

I, LAMAR BROWN, do hereby will and bequeath one very slightly used calculus book to Mr. Hammel, it being his in the first place, in the hope that like me, he will have very little time to read it.

I, RAY BROWN, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to tell jokes in Miss Shultz's class to Gordie VanMarter.

I, CATHY BROXON, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to do everything wrong to my brother, John, in the hope that he will try to overcome it.

I, LOUIS CHIRICOTTI, do hereby will and bequeath one well worn '51 Chevrolet to anyone who needs any mechanical experience.

I, CAROL COLLINS, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go steady with one boy for two years to my sister, Pat, in the hope that it will last as mine has.

I, JEAN CRAIN, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to ride to school every morning with four wonderful boys, to my "little" sister, Connie, in the hope that she arrives as safely as I did.

I, SHARON CRAIN, do hereby will and bequeath my amazing ability to make stupid remarks in class to my brother, Tom, in the hope that he may be as good at it as I was.

I, PAUL DEROSA, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath one slightly worn sweat shirt to Doug Sharrow in the hope that I'll get one from him in return.

I, CONNIE DYGERT, do hereby will and bequeath my ability not to go steady through three and a half years of high school to my sister, Janet.

I, AL EATINGER, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to work at the Glass House to anyone who wants it, provided he can afford to break as many dishes as I do.

I, MIKE ERICKSON, do hereby will and bequeath to Dave MacFadyen my ability to grow whiskers.

I, LARRY EYSTER, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to work at Kroger's all the way through high school to anyone crazy enough to do it.

I, JUDY FAIR, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go on a diet for two weeks, lose ten pounds then gain ten pounds plus two back in two days, to June Priest.

I, MAG FIELD, do hereby will and bequeath my curly mop to Nancy Randolph—in the hope that she'll never use "silky strate."

I, DICK FINCH, do hereby will and bequeath my ability not to be able to get into a school play to somebody that has the talent I have.

I, GARY FORBES, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay home and sleep without my mother's knowing it to Jerry Randolph in the hope that he uses it to his advantage.

I, BONNIE GARY, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get passes out of study hall to my sister, Connie.

I, RAY GERMAN, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get out of study hall to Glenn Wilber.

I, DAVE GRIFFIN, do hereby will and bequeath to Sharon Herendeen the ability to get mad and forget it, and to Marsha Sams the keys to my car for two years while I am in the Navy.

I, JANET HANTZ, do hereby will and bequeath to Metz students entering Angola next year my ability to study in study hall and also my locker.

I, JERRY HART, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get a driver's license whenever I want it to anyone in need of one and my ability to go with girls to Dave Southern.

I, DEAN HARTER, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to miss only 1½ days of school while in high school to Dave MacFadyen in the hope that he will do as well.

I, JAMES HILDEBRAND, do hereby will and bequeath to Tom Caswell my standing as the tallest boy in high school in the hope he will not lose it. Also, I give my well worn map of Toledo to anyone who wants to drive that far.

I, THOMAS M. HOFFMAN, do hereby will and bequeath to anyone who wants it, my ability to study hard as a senior in the hope that he will use it throughout his years in school.

I, JON HOLTZMAN, do hereby will and bequeath to the sophomore class, toward whom I have always been like a Dutch uncle, my rabbit's foot, in care of my brother, Tony.

I, KENNETH HULLINGER, do hereby will and bequeath to David Southern my ability to drive for two years without getting picked up by the cops.

I, WILLIAM JOHNSON, do hereby will and bequeath to my brother my well used Junior English book.

I, ALLEN KUNKEL, do hereby will and bequeath my refinished horn, full of dents, and my love to play good marches, to "Flip" Philipp in the hope he will soon play some right notes.

I, JAN LAIRD, do hereby will and bequeath to Phil Snyder my ability to make good grades and still have fun, and to Dee Newbauer my home-making "ability" and the will power to ignore certain boys.

I, ROBERT LOWTHER, do hereby will and bequeath my two Junior English books, nearly new, to Mr. Seigel.

I, STEVE MANSFIELD, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get good grades in Mr. Seigel's class to Ken Nagel, who needs it.

I, JAMES MAXWELL, do hereby will and bequeath to Mr. Holmes my highly treasured picture of our nation's great leader, Ike, in the hope that he too will gain confidence in the future from looking at it; to Mr. Bernhardt, a new thermometer; to Mr. Hammel, a container of the yet unproved element ether.

I, SHARON MCLELAND, do hereby will and bequeath my black band tie to Janice Converse and hope that she enjoys it as much as I have.

I, VANDA MUSSER, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in journalism class to my sister, Sharon.

I, GAYLON MYERS, do hereby will and bequeath my bubble-skirts to put on Tony's hot M.G.

I, LUCINDA NEWNAM, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to keep from blushing when I am embarrassed to my little brother, Johnny.

I, TOM PRIEST, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass physical ed two years out of three to any freshman or sophomore who possesses the inability to pass it two years in a row.

I, TONY ROMERO, do hereby will and bequeath to Miss Shultz a wig, in the hope she will no longer tear her hair. To Janice Brand, I leave my power to get along with people and to Dave MacFadyen, my ability not to get a ticket from the city police.

I, BARB RONDOT, do hereby will and bequeath my faithful little alarm clock to my neighbor, Linda Ewers, although the alarm will go off only at 7 o'clock.

I, PHIL RORICK, do hereby will and bequeath to my brother, John, my ability to argue upon any subject anyone wishes to mention.

I, RICHARD SERVIS, do hereby will and bequeath my unruly hair to John Broxon in the hope that he can train it better than I did.

I, JOHN SHAW, do hereby will and bequeath to John Hammel my first telescope so that other physics classes may have as much fun as our class did with it.

I, BILL SHEETS, do hereby will and bequeath my old combs and toothbrushes to any and all underclassmen who want them, and my driving ability to anyone who can use it.

I, DOUG SHARROW, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to break glasses to anyone whose father happens to own a glass factory.

I, MARCIA SHORT, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get stuck with typing programs for plays to my sister Dianne in the hope that she learns to center things better than I did.

I, RICHARD STEINKE, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with all the high school teachers, to anyone who wants it.

I, BILL STONECIPHER, do hereby will and bequeath to Mr. Seigel my well-used English book, and to Leroy Reed and Glenn Wilber my intelligence to pass also my ability to get along with Barbara Shipley to anyone who may need it.

I, JUDY TRICH, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Seigel to Nan and Georgie.

I, GENE WEICHT, do hereby will and bequeath to Mr. Wearly of the Industrial Arts Department, one good, unabused screwdriver—another first.

I, JEAN WICOFF, do hereby will and bequeath my poetic ability to Doug Essenberg, hoping that he may use it to get out of a tight spot some time.

I, JOHN WILLIAMSON, do hereby will and bequeath my poetic ability to Doug Essenberg, hoping he may use it some time.

I, KEN WILLIAMSON, do hereby will and bequeath a well used map of Fort Wayne and the surrounding area to anyone who has good use for it, especially Ken Nagel.

I, MARGARET WILLIAMSON, do hereby will and bequeath to Janet Wilder my ability to occupy every seat in study hall within four years with the hope that she does not cut up as much as I.

I, PHIL WILSON, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get to school at 8:29 in the morning to Jack Miller, to Gary Griffith my ability to pass chemistry, and to my brother, Roger, my ability to get out of work.

I, NANCY WOOD, do hereby will and bequeath to Peg Jarrard and Lynda Gentry my ability to sit by calmly with nerves of steel while the said two wrecklessly took the wheel of a car for the first time, using the accelerator pedal as a brake and the brake as an accelerator and paying no attention to the fact that the car belongs on the street.

I, RON WUEST, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to have fun on New Year's Eve to Keith Beechy provided he can use it to the best of his ability.

I, JIM WYATT, do hereby will and bequeath my two English books to Mr. Seigel.

In testimony whereof, we hereunto set our hand and seal and declare this to be our last will and testament, this twenty-eighth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven.

Class Prophecy

It is now the year 1970 and several members of the class of "57" have met on board the ocean liner, U. S. S. Horner, which is bound for Honolulu where the class will hold their reunion. It is smooth sailing all the way under the steady hand of our distinguished captain, RONALD WUEST. Our dependable steward, TONY ROMERO, is always on hand to meet our every need. SHARON CRAIN is our ship's cute hostess and she is talking to the famous European news correspondent, JOH HOLTZMAN, who is telling her all about his exciting experiences abroad.

JUNIOR GERMAN, sole owner of the largest tractor firm in America, and his business associate, SONNY MYERS, are on their way to close a big business deal with MRS. GAIL BRAUCHLA, the former JUDY FAIR, who owns a vast pineapple plantation on the island.

The famed actor, PAUL DEROSA, is on his way to Honolulu, not only to attend the reunion, but to meet the beautiful JEAN CRAIN, who is co-starring with him in the movie "South Pacific."

Strolling along the deck we see millionaire playboy BILL SHEETS and his pretty private nurse, MARGARET FIELD, engaged in a game of shuffle board.

We hear there are two of the business world's most efficient secretaries on board: JUDY BRAMAN, who is the secretary of the world's biggest yacht club in America; and CONNIE DYGERT, who is the ship captain's secretary.

Oh! Here comes JOHN WILLIAMSON wearing the latest Van Hild suit designed by JIM HILDEBRAND, New York's leading designer of men's clothing.

NANCY WOOD, who is now the greatest portrait artist in the world, is doing sketches for everyone on board.

We overhear DOUG SHARROW, manager of the winning team of the World Series this year, talking to DEAN HARTER, his most valuable player of the year.

DICK STEINKE, the ship's communicator, tells us we are nearing the shores of Honolulu. As we look toward the shore we see CAROL COLLINS dancing to the guitar music of the leading American comedian, RAY BROWN.

As the gang plank is lowered, MAURICE BARLETT, the designer of beautiful English tweed top coats, comes ashore. There is a huge commotion and a barking of dogs; and as we turn around we see SHARON MCLELAND and her dog trainer, JERRY HART, leading her famous Dandy Dinmount, who was just voted the world's most beautiful dog. Back of Sharon we see MARGARET WILLIAMSON, the winner of the woman's discus throwing award in the Olympics, and her manager, VANDA MUSSER.

AL EATINGER has all of his cabs waiting to take us to the Pineapple Grove Hotel, owned by LOUIS CHIRICOTTI. MAYOR JAMES MAXWELL is presenting the gold key to the city to MIKE ERICKSON, Mayor of New York City. The band, led by ALLEN KUNKEL, is loudly playing as JEAN WICOFF sings "Little Grass Shack."

There is a hum of a Cris Craft and TOM PRIEST and DICK FINCH zoom by on water skis. They are practicing for a show at the famed Cypress Gardens of Florida.

Class Prophecy

Looking off in the distance, we see the dome of JOHN SHAW's elaborate observatory. LAMAR BROWN and John came down to join us with their technical assistant, JANET HANTZ.

With a screech of brakes out jumps GENE WEICHT, the island's mortician, from his sleek black Cadillac. With him is the famous corporation lawyer STEVE MANSFIELD, who is vacationing after a trying case.

PHIL RORICK and RICHARD SERVIS, the well known news critics, are here on their much needed vacations.

PHIL WILSON will arrive later. Phil is the owner of a chain of the most modern gas stations on the island.

GARY FORBES, the island's preacher, and TOM HOFFMAN, the superintendent of schools in Honolulu, arrive on the scene.

We all go to the Dairy Queen, which is owned by MARCIA DAVIS (the former MARCIA SHORT) for a snack. It is being run by CATHY BROXON and JUDY BROWN at the present.

We see the former BARBARA RONDOT and she invites us to come to her mansion to meet her husband, who is an engineer on the island.

We are interrupted by the roar of an airplane and we look just in time to see Mrs. LARRY DELLER, the former BONNIE GARY, landing with her husband in their private plane.

We hear laughter and we know DAVE GRIFFIN, famed radio-television comedian, has just told a joke. We go on to the Pineapple Grove where BILL STONECIPHER, the hotel detective, meets us along with KEN WILLIAMSON, who is the manager of the hotel. JANICE LAIRD is at the hotel modeling her own famous hair styles. LUCINDA NEWNAM, the hotel's hostess comes rushing out to greet us. As we enter the lobby, we see TONY HULLINGER, BILLY JOHNSON and JIM WYATT coming down the stairs discussing a big business transaction.

LARRY EYSTER is at the desk as we register. He is the hotel's assistant manager. BOB LOWTHER, a big contractor, joins us and tells us he is in Honolulu to build a new type of thatch houses.

JUDY TRICH, the world's greatest horsewoman, joins us and tells us about the latest rodeos she has entered.

Just before we leave the hotel after a wonderful time in Honolulu, we settle our hotel bill with JIM WYATT, the business manager. After a final farewell, we board our ship for the long journey home. Seeing our old friends has inspired all of us to go on to even greater things in the days ahead.

Class History

One sunny morning in 1945 the bright shiny faces of seventy-one young Americans could be seen at the portals of Angola School; they were to occupy its halls for twelve years. Of the original seventy-one, thirty-one are graduating with the class of 1957. Others have joined the class to bring the total up to sixty members.

The original seventy-one are:

Lorraine Aldrich	Lucinda S. Newnam	Jeanette M. Crain
Don Arlin Andrew	Tommy Joe Priest	Sharon R. Crain
Maurice Barlett	Phillip Rorick	Jerry R. Cronin
Judy Lee Brown	Robert Rose	Sandra L. Davidson
Deanna Kay Deller	Bob E. Lowther	Michael Erickson
Stephen Dygert	Vanda L. Musser	Judy Lee Fair
Richard Finch	Nancy McCormick	Sonda J. Ferris
Thomas J. Giver	Marion D. Rozell	Margaret Field
John Gleason	Charles D. Rozell	Gary L. Forbes
Frederic L. Guerra	Richard F. Servis	Raymond E. German
Franklin Handy	Wauneta J. Smith	Richard Harter
William R. Harris	John Shaw	Clara Henderson
Joyceann Kingery	William H. Sheets	Roy D. Hollopeter
Wayne Kring	Paul E. Weicht	Mary Jenkins
Allen Kunkel	Phillip D. Wilson	Billy R. Johnson
Janice Laird	Nancy E. Wood	Beverly Stout
Lina Le Livensparger	James D. Albright	Darlene K. Wallace
Lloyd Long	Lynn E. Andrew, Jr.	John E. Williamson
Anita L. McClellan	Maria I. Aranguren	James W. Wyatt
Darrell McDougle	Mildred A. Barto	Ronald L. Wuest
Sharon McLeland	Judy Lou Braman	Wanda M. Caywood
Norma Nichols	Lyle LaMar Brown	Mary E. Collins
Burdena Nichols	Judith Chambers	Marjorie McEntarfer
		Ken H. Williamson

Ready to take on the name "Greenie" in 1953, we entered high school. This was the first of our four glorious and memorable years. Mr. Kuebler was our sponsor.

By the time we were sophomores we knew the upperclassmen better and took part in many of the activities available. Mr. Barkdull took Mr. Kuebler's place when the latter moved away.

Our junior year was a real credit to us. We were awarded a plaque for selling more magazine subscriptions than the juniors in previous years. Our junior play, "All in the Family," was a huge success. The Junior-Senior Banquet was the greatest thrill we had ever experienced.

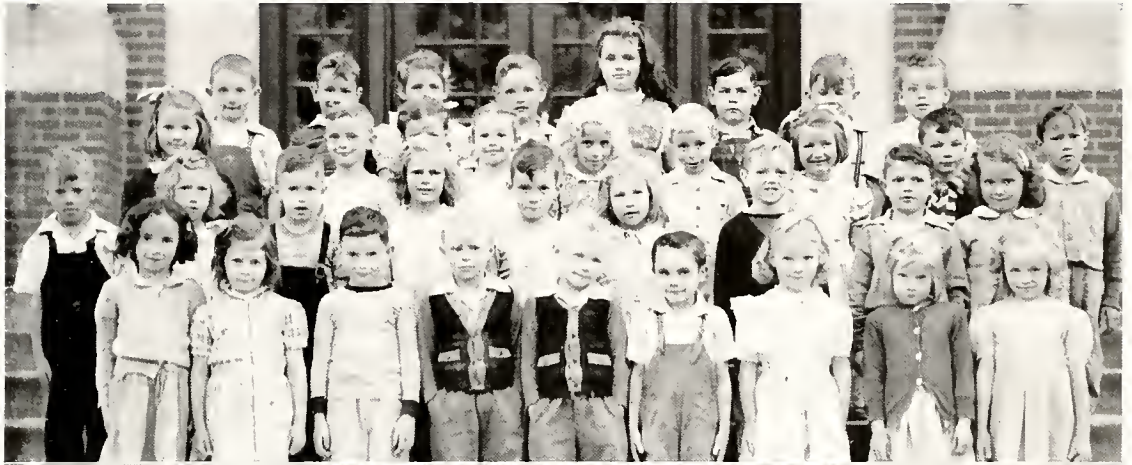

At last—We finally made it! We were seniors. We started off with a big bang! Our senior class play, "Time Out for Ginger," was put on expertly. The juniors really showed us a wonderful time at the Junior-Senior Banquet. The May Prom after the banquet will never be forgotten. The class trip to New York was a new and wonderful experience for everyone.

Then it came time for Baccalaureate and Commencement. With mixed emotions we walked across the stage to receive our diplomas. We were on our own then. This was good-bye to the friends and teachers, and a big hello to the world.

But the memories of A.H.S. will always be with us wherever we go!

A Senior's Lament

Not much time for me to roam
Down the halls of my foster home!
All the things I have put off doing,
After me are now pursuing.

Gladly did I let the work slide by
As I sat and gazed up at the sky.
Never seemed to get my homework done
'Cause I never worked, always had fun.

My grade card is full of F's and D's
And a few lonely, scattered C's.
As I stood, stammered, and marked time,
My credits dropped far, far behind.

My classmates are glum for each one knows
That his senior year draws to a close.
But I'm not glum; I am full of cheer,
For I'm to be a senior again next year!

—JOHN SHAW

Senior Sadness

Every spring around this time
A certain nostalgia comes to mind.
The seniors learn that this year's their last;
Their time has come; the die is cast.

No more early breakfasts at the park,
Getting up at 5, driving in the dark.
We'll have no more ice skating thrills,
No more hockey, no more spills!

Desert boots, bubbles, loafers, and bucks,
Jimmy Dean, Ivy Leagues, D.A.'s and such!
Pony tails, "Elvis," Bermudas, and Cokes,
Laughter, tears, troubles, and jokes!

These happy memories our minds will hold;
Our high school days will never grow old;
So, good-by high school and all our friends,
Here, life begins, and our childhood ends.

—JANICE LAIRD

Unforgettable Years

Another year is over,
But this one has been our last.
The fun I've had will always remain;
I'll never forget the past.
The days were crowded with much to do,
With never a minute to waste.
As I look back, I remember the proms,
The banquets, and also the Keys;
The basketball games and sock hops,
Yes, everyone went to these!
I'll never forget the breakfasts,
Out at Pokagon State Park;
The steps to the beach were hard to see,
Because it was always still dark.
The slumber parties I'll never forget,
And open houses where everyone met.
They all come once in a lifetime,
The memories we hold so dear,
The joys and sorrows we all have shared,
In our glorious senior year!

—MARGARET FIELD

A Senior's Regrets

How slow the minutes tick away,
The teacher's voice drones on,
The dull routine by hour and day;
And then, the years are gone!

In retrospect I see the fun,
The carefree, joyful memories,
And time that passed before begun,
My plans and loves, my life of ease.

If only I'd perceived it then,
How stealthily the time would fly,
Instead of wishing gone the life
Now lost to me eternally!
